The Alma Mater

Oh, we love the school of Northside,
Where we live and learn to know,
And the friendships that we make here, last,
Though years may come and go.

Oh, the sacred halls of Northside,
To our heart will e'er be near.
And when we part, we'll leave our heart,
To the school we hold so dear.

So to you, our Alma Mater,
Ever loyal we shall be;
And through the days,
We'll sing loud praise,
Northside, all hail to thee!

Judy,
Good luck always

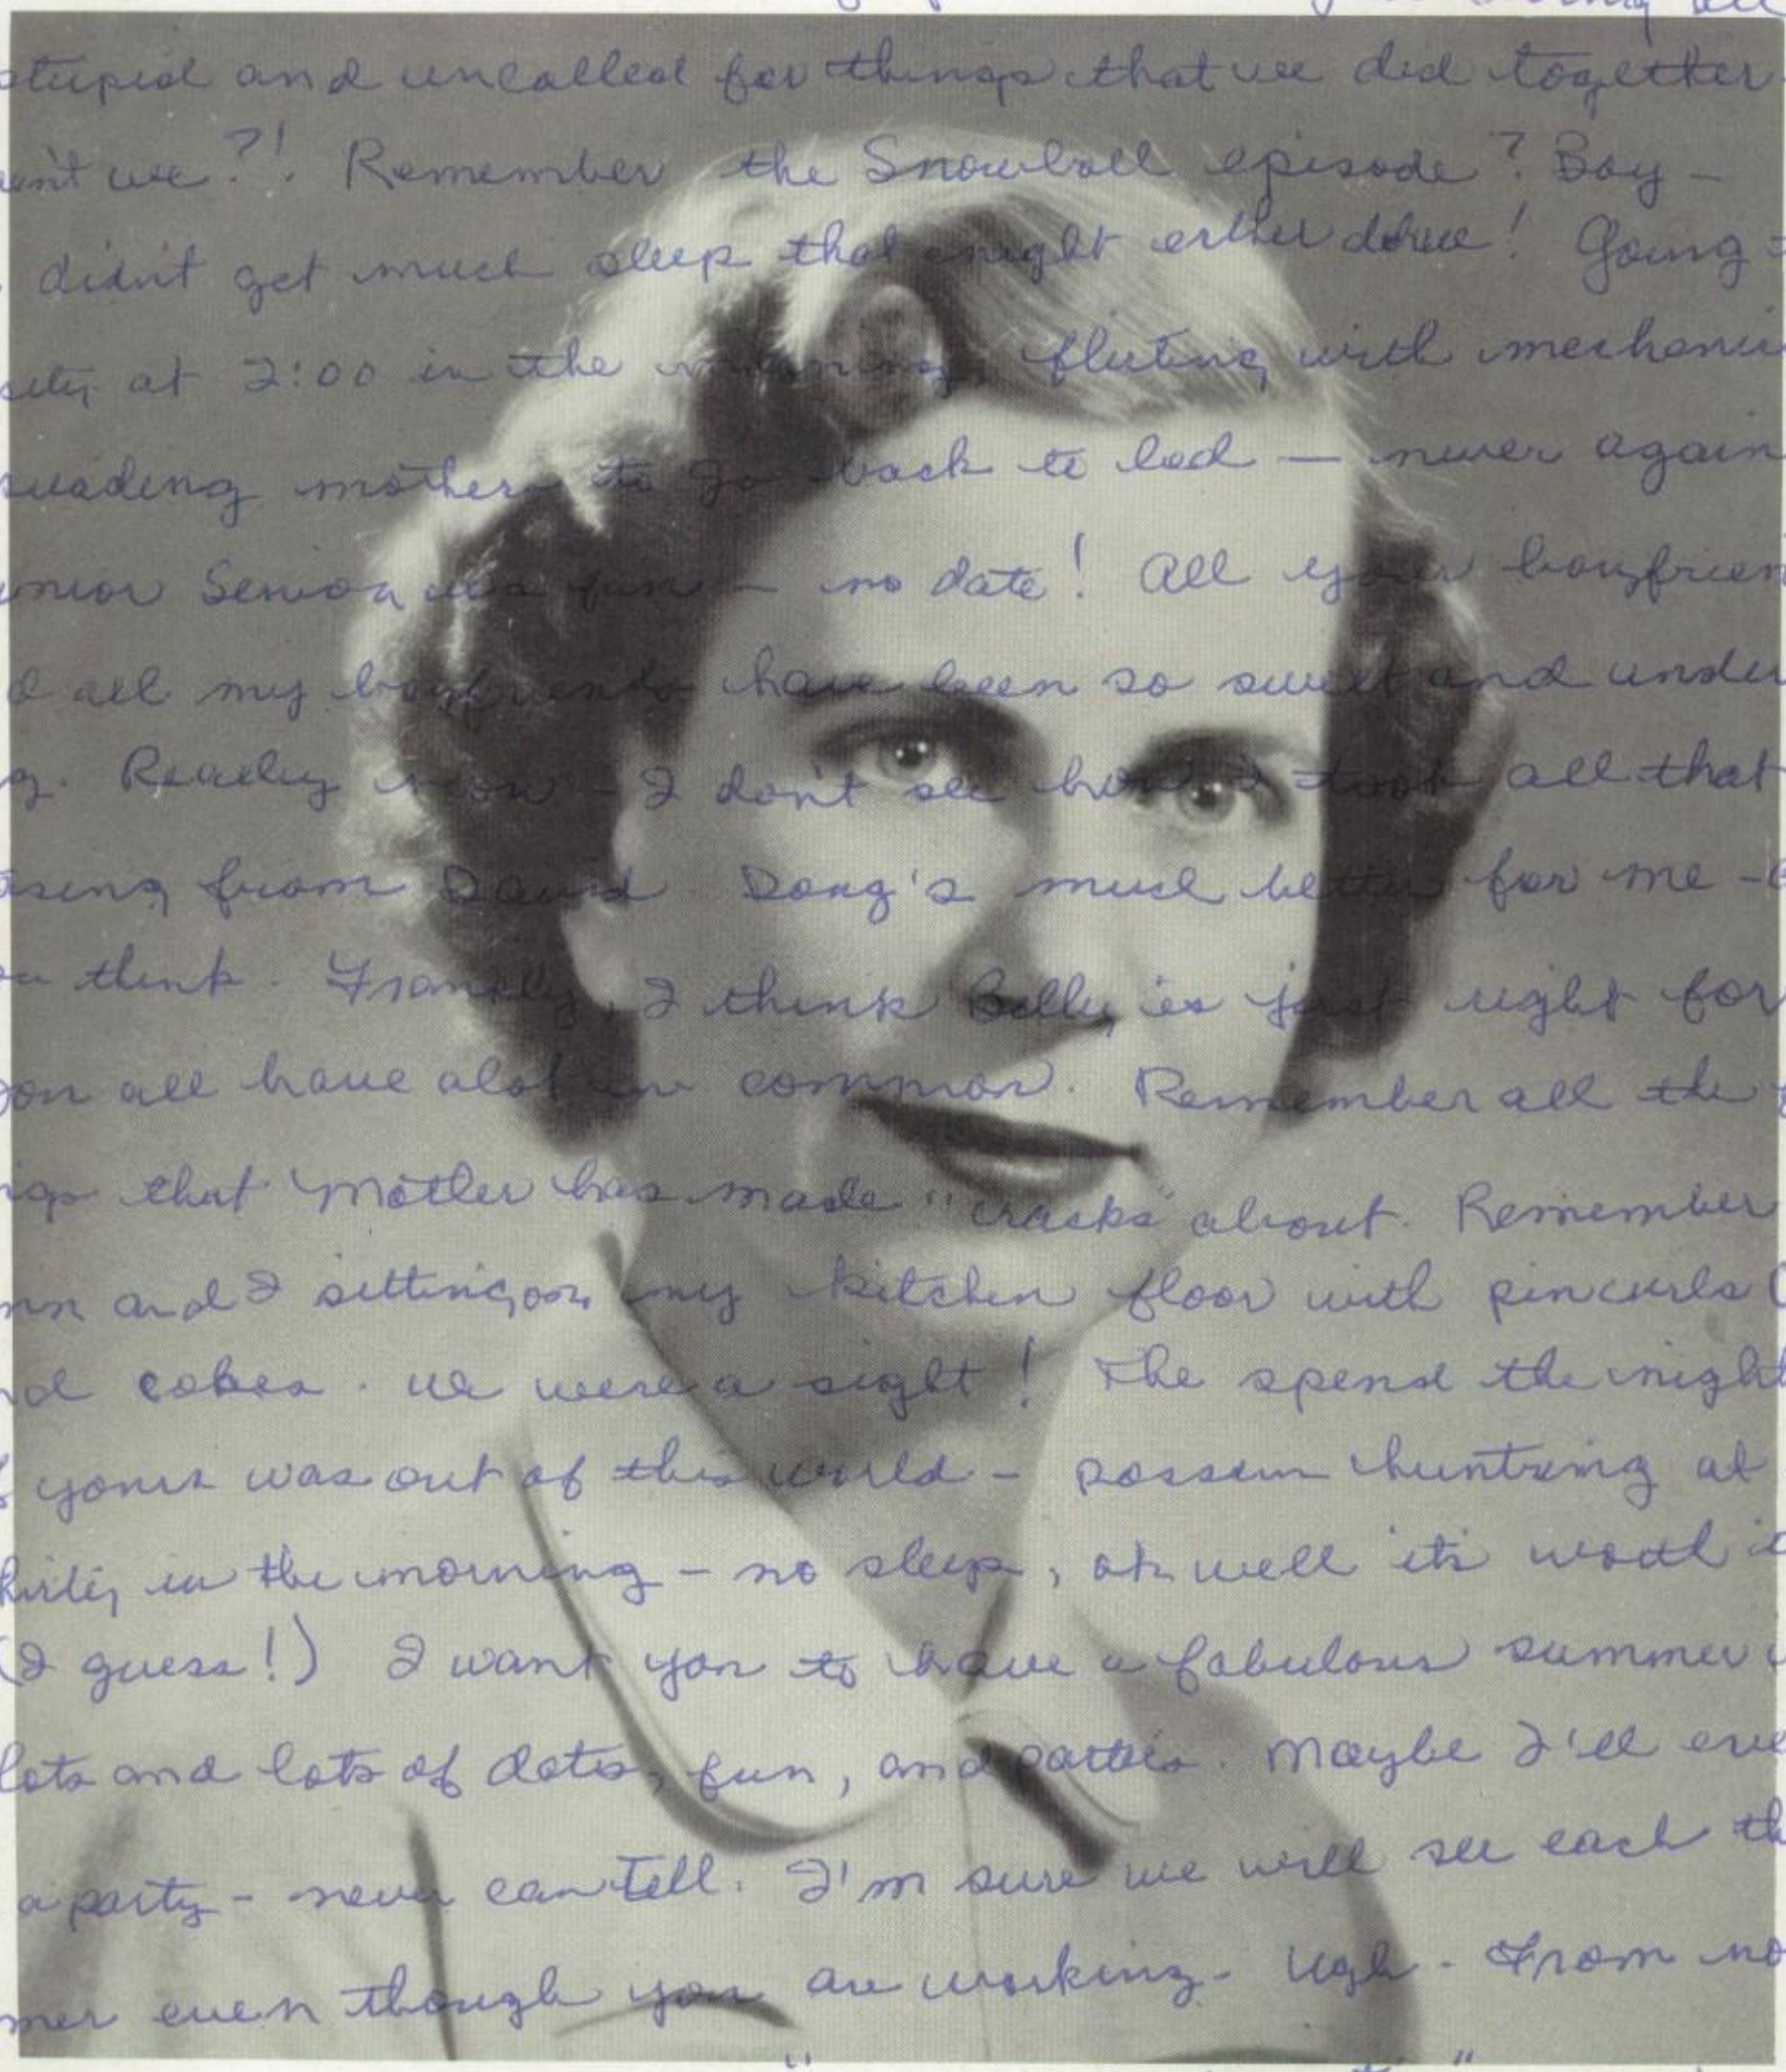
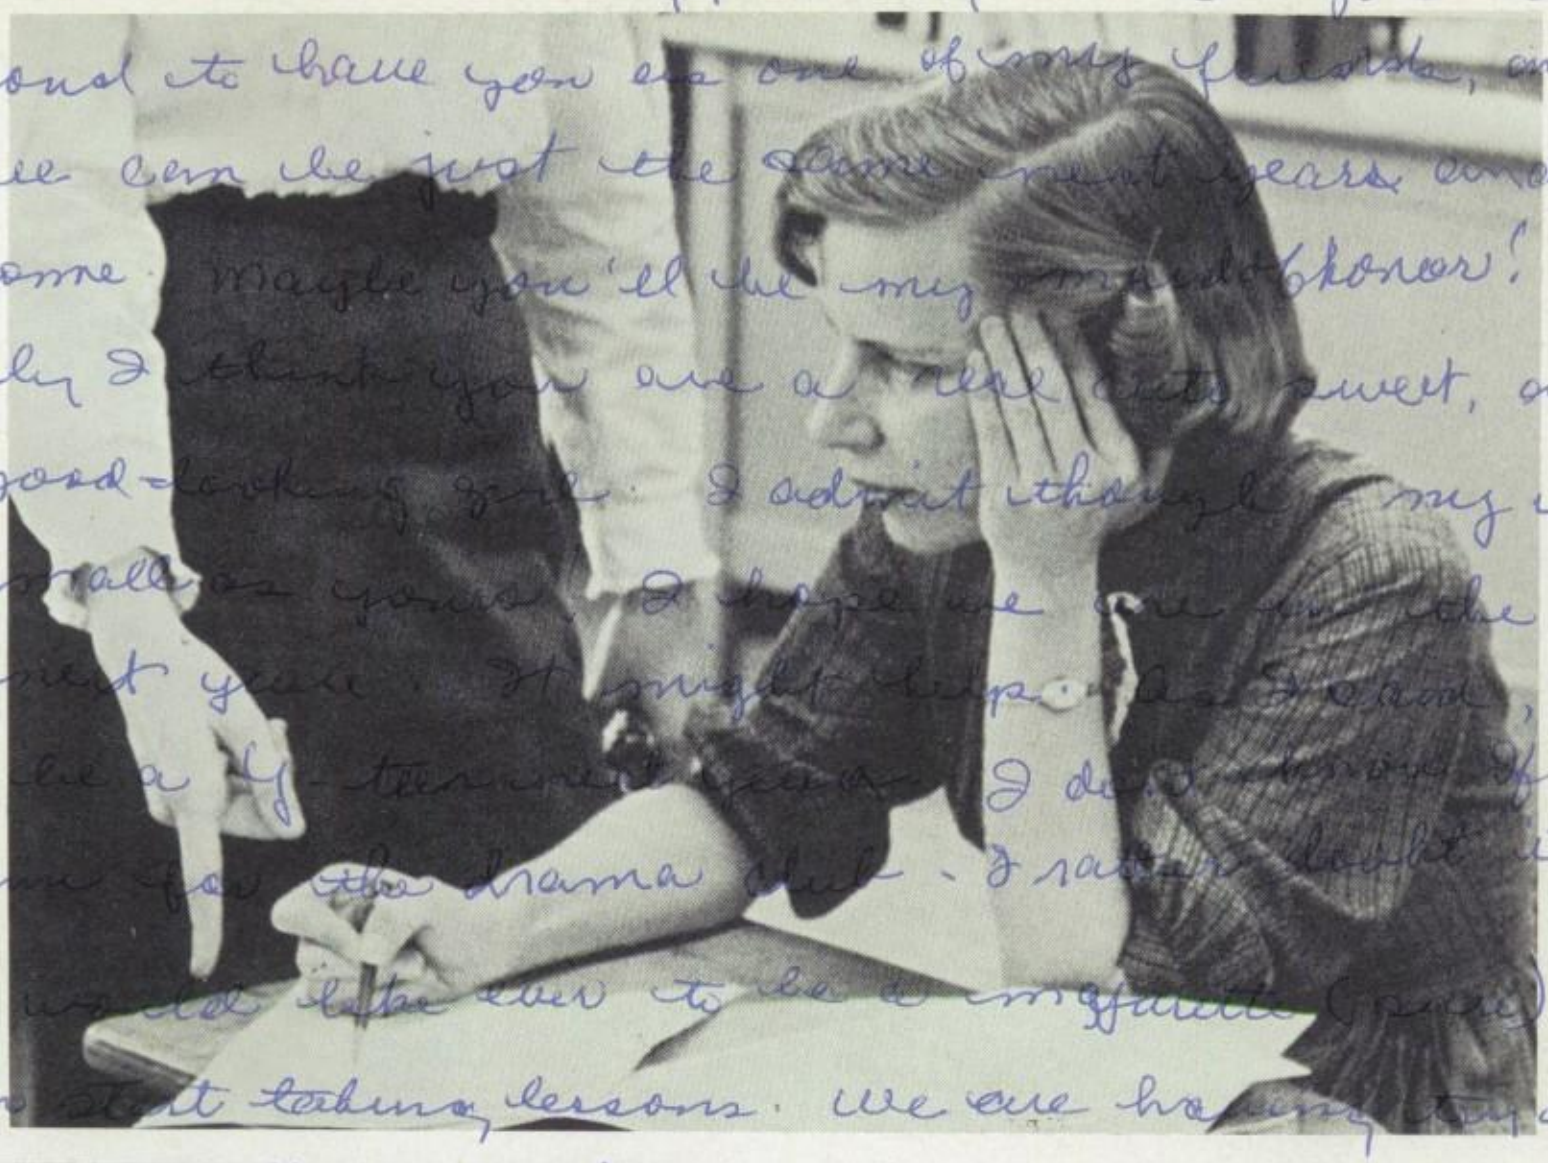
NORTHSIDE HIGH SCHOOL
ATLANTA, GEORGIA

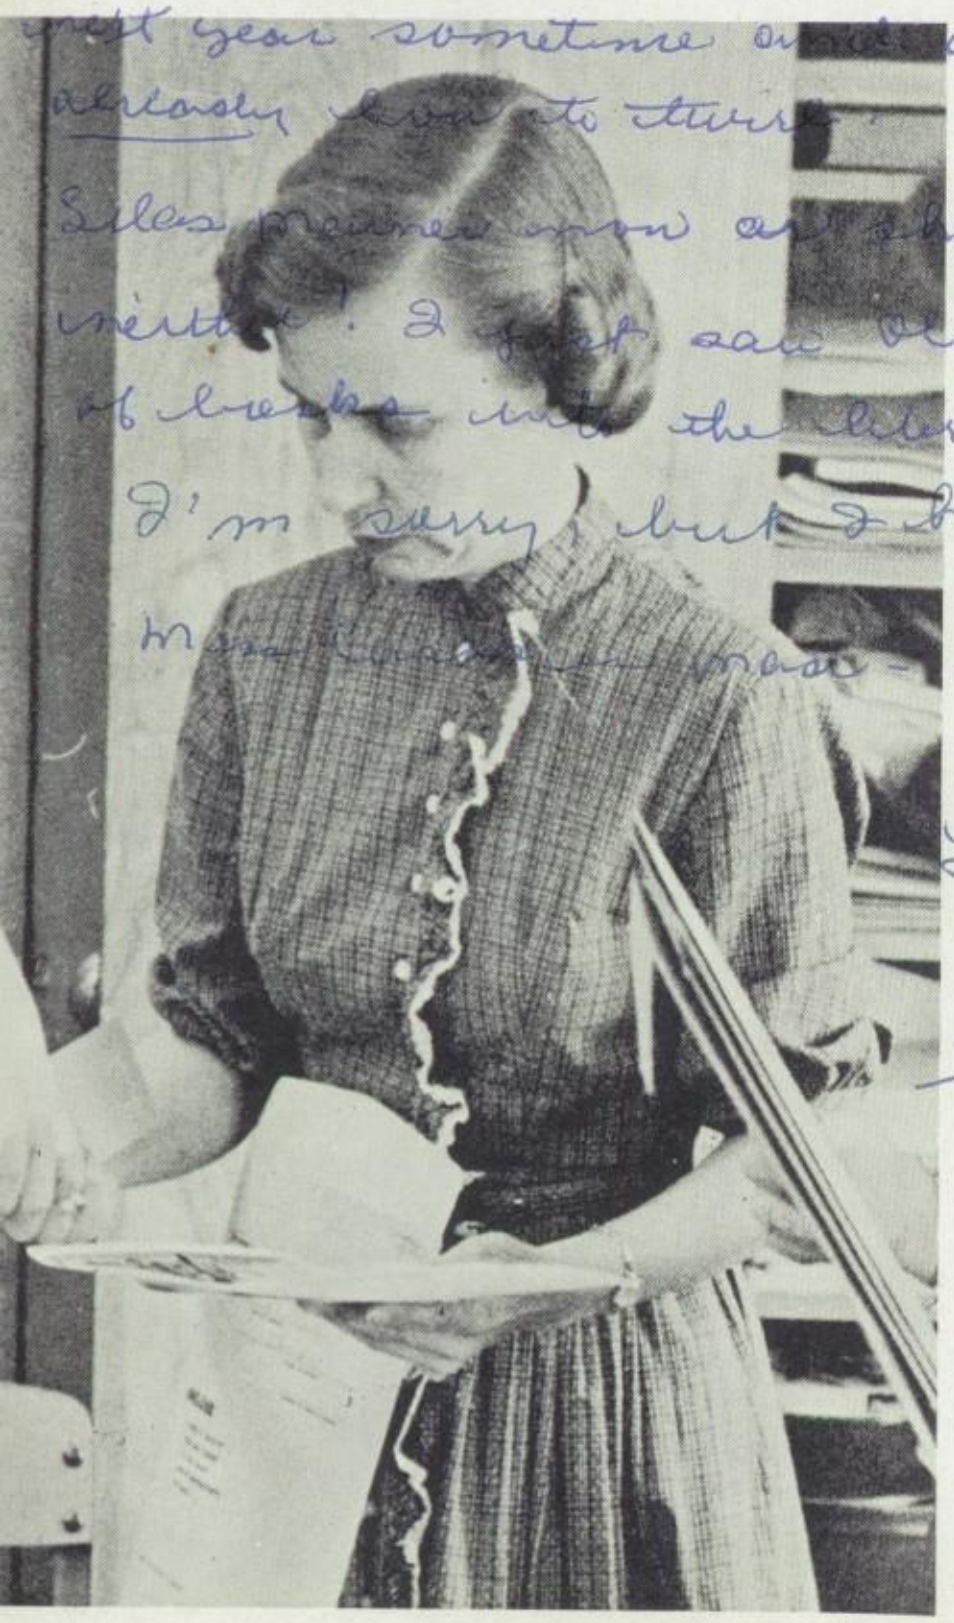
Dear Judy —

We have had alot of fun this year doing all the stupid and uncalled for things that we did together — haven't we?! Remember the Snowball episode? Boy — we didn't get much sleep that night either do we! Going to the Varsity at 2:00 in the morning, flirting with mechanics, persuading mother to go back to bed — never again. The Junior Senior was fun — no date! All your boyfriends and all my boyfriends have been so sweet and understanding. Really now — I don't see how I took all that teasing from David Dong's much better for me — don't you think. Frankly, I think Bobby is just right for you. You all have alot in common. Remember all the funny things that Mother has made "cracks" about. Remember you, Lynn and I sitting on my kitchen floor with pincurls (more) and cokes. We were a sight! The spend the night party of yours was out of this world — possum hunting at five thirty in the morning — no sleep, oh well it's worth it (I guess!) I want you to have a fabulous summer with lots and lots of dates, fun, and parties. Maybe I'll even have a party — never can tell. I'm sure we will see each this summer even though you are working. Ugh. From now on shall I address you as "Secretary Foredomatic" or Miss Judy B. Ford. If we pass this year, you and I can share another years of happiness together. Before you know we'll both be married and wish we were back in high school wondering who we were going to marry.

I'm glad to recall the fact that I beat you on 1 Algebra test! Some difference, but!







In your many unselfish endeavors which you have undertaken at Northside you have endeared yourself to each person with whom you have worked.

Products, second only to perfection, have come from your energetic spirit in approaching tasks such as molding a Senior Play and organizing a yearbook of one of the largest Atlanta schools. All of this is in addition to maintaining a high status as an English teacher.

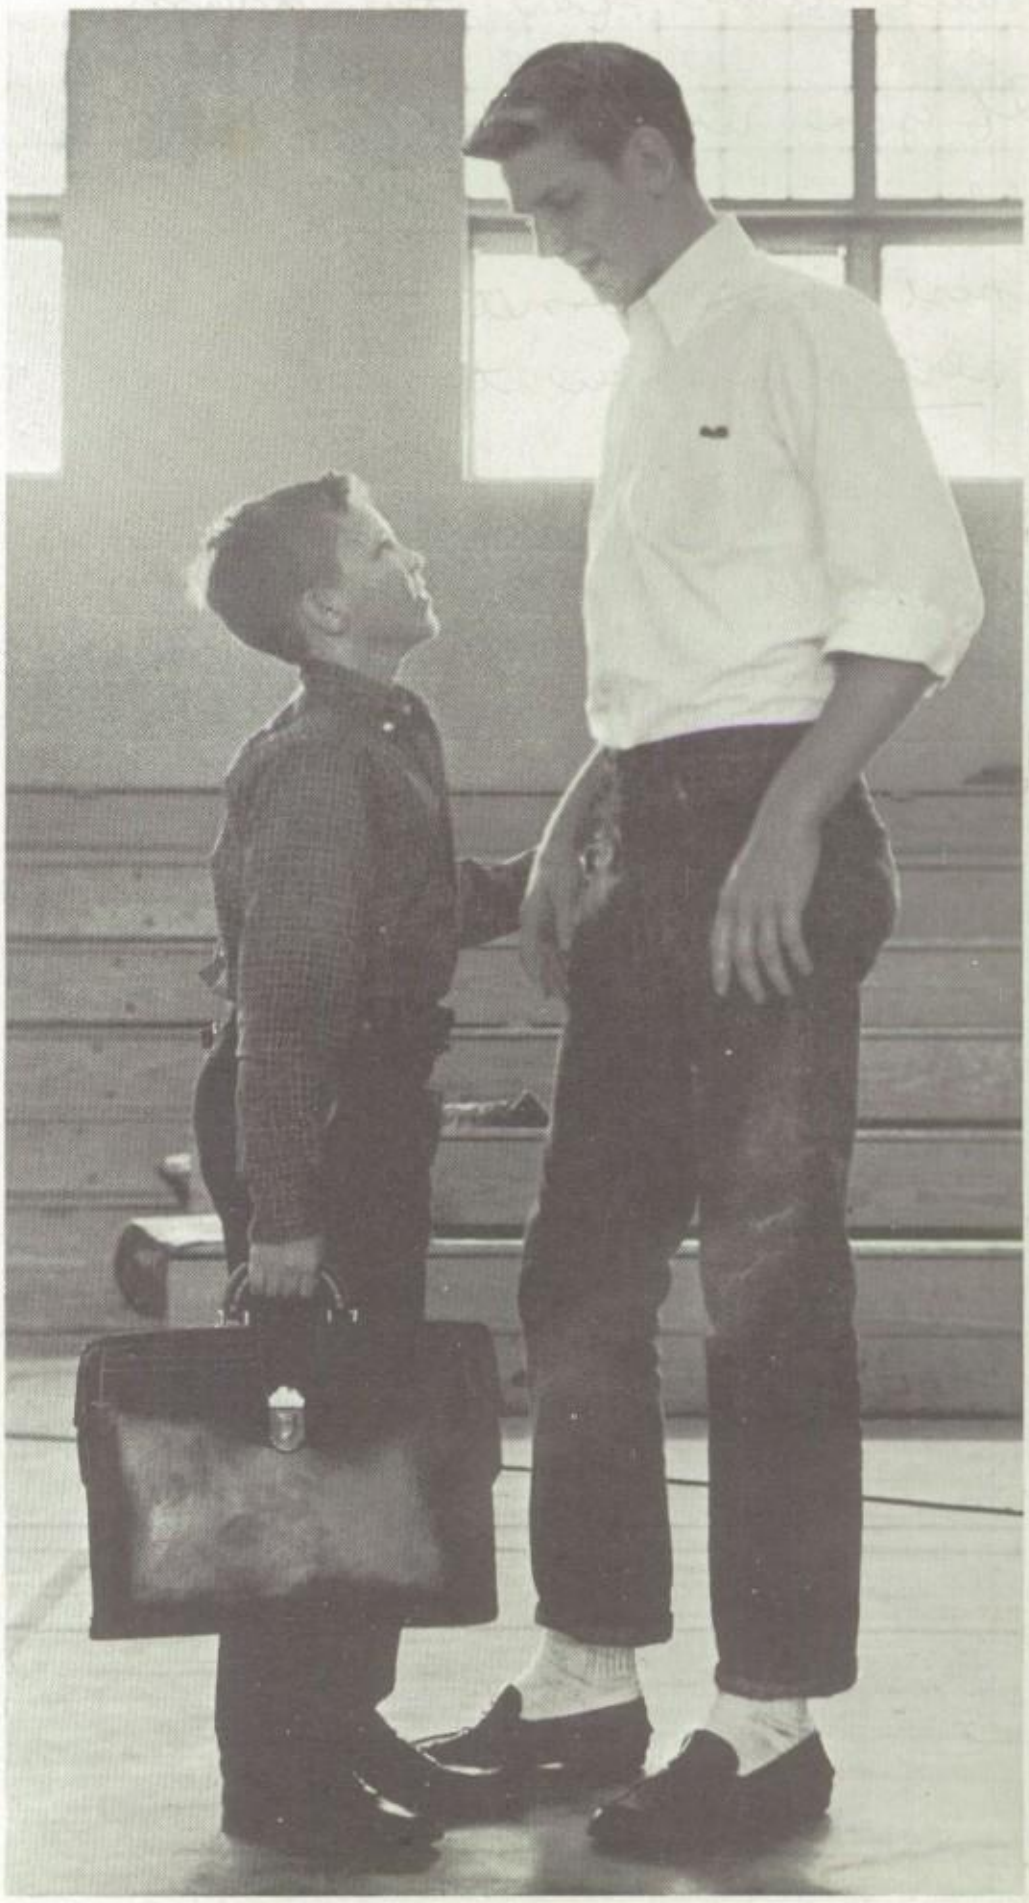
If you had known that we were dedicating this annual to you, you would, of course, have stopped us, for your modesty is a part of you.

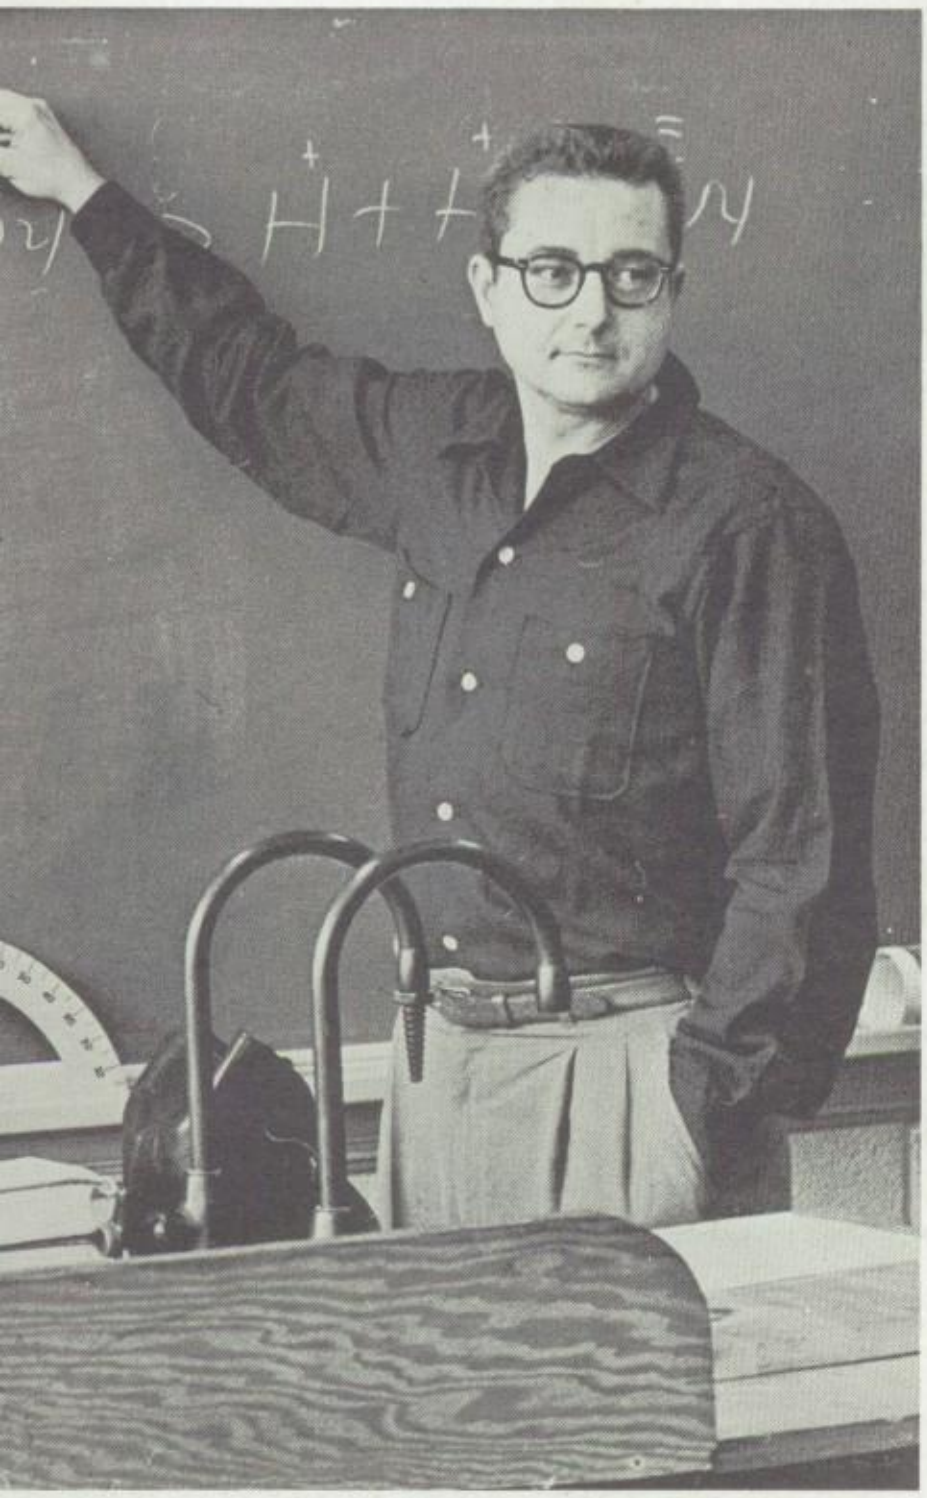
We are honored to dedicate this, The 1957 VIKING, to you.

Entering Northside can be as bewildering as entering another country, for each school has its own laws, traditions, system of government and customs. The feeling of aloneness can seem very acute at times. The long task of turning rooms full of strangers into classes with friends begins anew as people meet, and the bonds of friendship are forged in varying degrees.

Each of the novel experiences common in the course of the first few weeks make high school seem a little fresher and a little more wonderful. The first impression of Northside is one of immensity. A new student is often struck with this upon realizing that his next class is three floors and the length of a teeming hall away. It is puzzling to try to decipher a schedule card showing classes changing rooms and cryptic abbreviations such as "Sp, Hutch"; "C. C. rm 102, J."; "Durden, Mil. Bldg. M-2"; "4 a&c, Lun.b". The next thing which he must do is familiarize himself with the room numbers and names of all his teachers.

After learning his way around the maze of halls and doors, he realizes that there are four grades above him. He looks with respect to the upper classmen and eagerly looks forward to that far off day when he will attain the status of senior.





After the newness wears off, the student realizes that high school is a great deal of work. He might gripe about his homework, but he usually approaches it with determination. He worries about finals and then at the same time jokes about that big failure. There is a reason for everything that he does, but the greatest satisfaction comes from just learning to live.

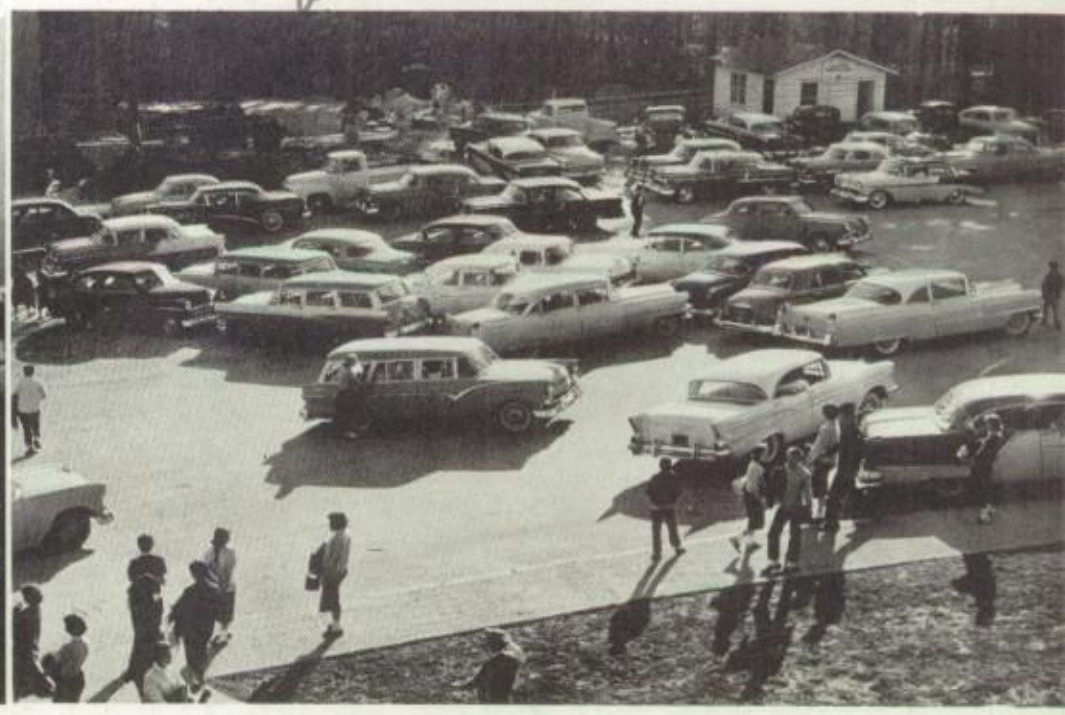
The hours of lost sleep and gallons of midnight oil are not in vain, however, for the rewards are rich. Many privileges and most coveted honors require that one obtain at least a "B" average. A more far reaching reward is the wonderful preparation one receives for college or entrance into the business world.

Here at Northside we have a wonderful chance to learn, as it has one of the highest ratings of any school in the city. Our faculty is very competent and our facilities are steadily improving.

Dudy-
I have really enjoyed knowing you these past years or two in school. I have really enjoyed getting to know you. I hope we can get to gether a lot this summer & maybe we can be swimming at the Good luck in your work. P.S. I hope you can read it.
We coming at Pirate.
Love "ya"
Margaret

After a full day's grind, a pep rally is a welcome change. The stunts of the cheerleaders and the Pep Club do much to bring about the enthusiasm of the milling students. Our cheers and shouts reach their crescendo as the spirit spreads among the throng.

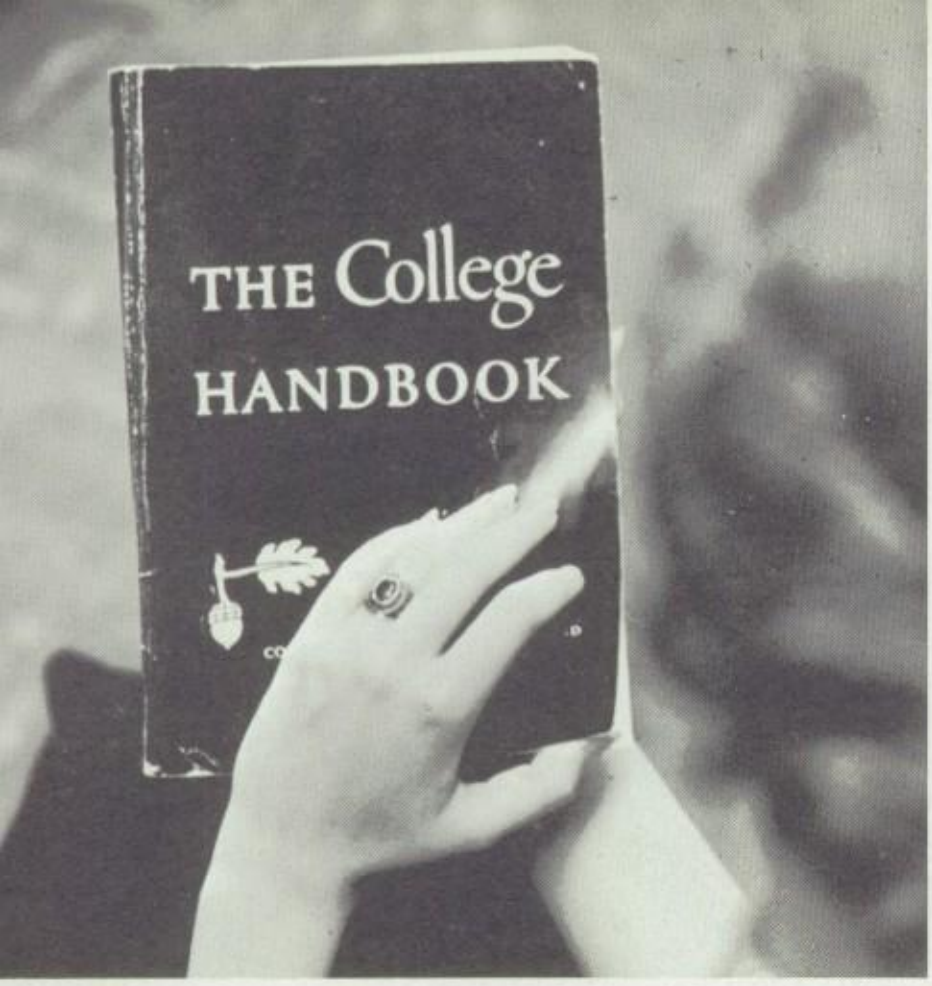
It seems as if going home would be the easiest part of the day; however this is not always the case. Even with the fine work of the traffic patrol, jams are inevitable with the number of cars and the limited parking facilities.



Many things are said repeatedly about football, but actually the game itself is not the only element of excitement. The cheering congregation of familiar faces, the tempting aroma of hotdogs and popcorn, and the spirited strains of the band all go together to make up a memorable season. At the time the confusion in the parking lot, the long ticket lines, or the unpleasant weather may be annoying; but football season constitutes the fondest of all our memories.

The dance—formal, informal, in the gym, or at the Biltmore—always makes an exciting evening. At 11:30 the curfew sends everyone home with tired feet and happy hearts.

The feeling of tenseness and excitement gives way to one of pleasant anticipation for the dance which usually lies ahead. The preparations, always taken for granted except by those who are responsible for them, start several weeks beforehand with the arrangements for the band. A brave corps of duty-minded individuals is recruited and given the underated name of "Decorating Committee." The job of these brave students begins early in the afternoon and is usually not finished until minutes before the arrival of the first couple. Although it lasts but a few minutes after the dance begins, the work of these people is always of the highest quality.



The feeling of bewilderment has now become one of confidence; the loneliness has been transformed into fellowship and companionship. Each nook and corner of this building has become a familiar part of our everyday life. The well-worn books, the gnarled desks, and the shining trophies now become part of the past.

Our thoughts now turn toward our future education or forthcoming career. Applications by the barrels are patiently filled out and sent to numerous colleges. We spend many tedious days awaiting their reply. Our days are filled with preparation, whether it is in the form of taking College Boards, visiting colleges and having interviews, or reviewing The College Handbook.

We go to parties and dances, order invitations, select graduation dresses, all while we are trying to get in the last book report, work the last hundred algebra problems, perform the last chemistry experiment and spend one last hour in detention hall.

We seniors at last realize the reluctance the departing seniors have always felt. Even with our bragging about leaving at last, we acknowledge the fact that we are parting with the happiest years of our lives.

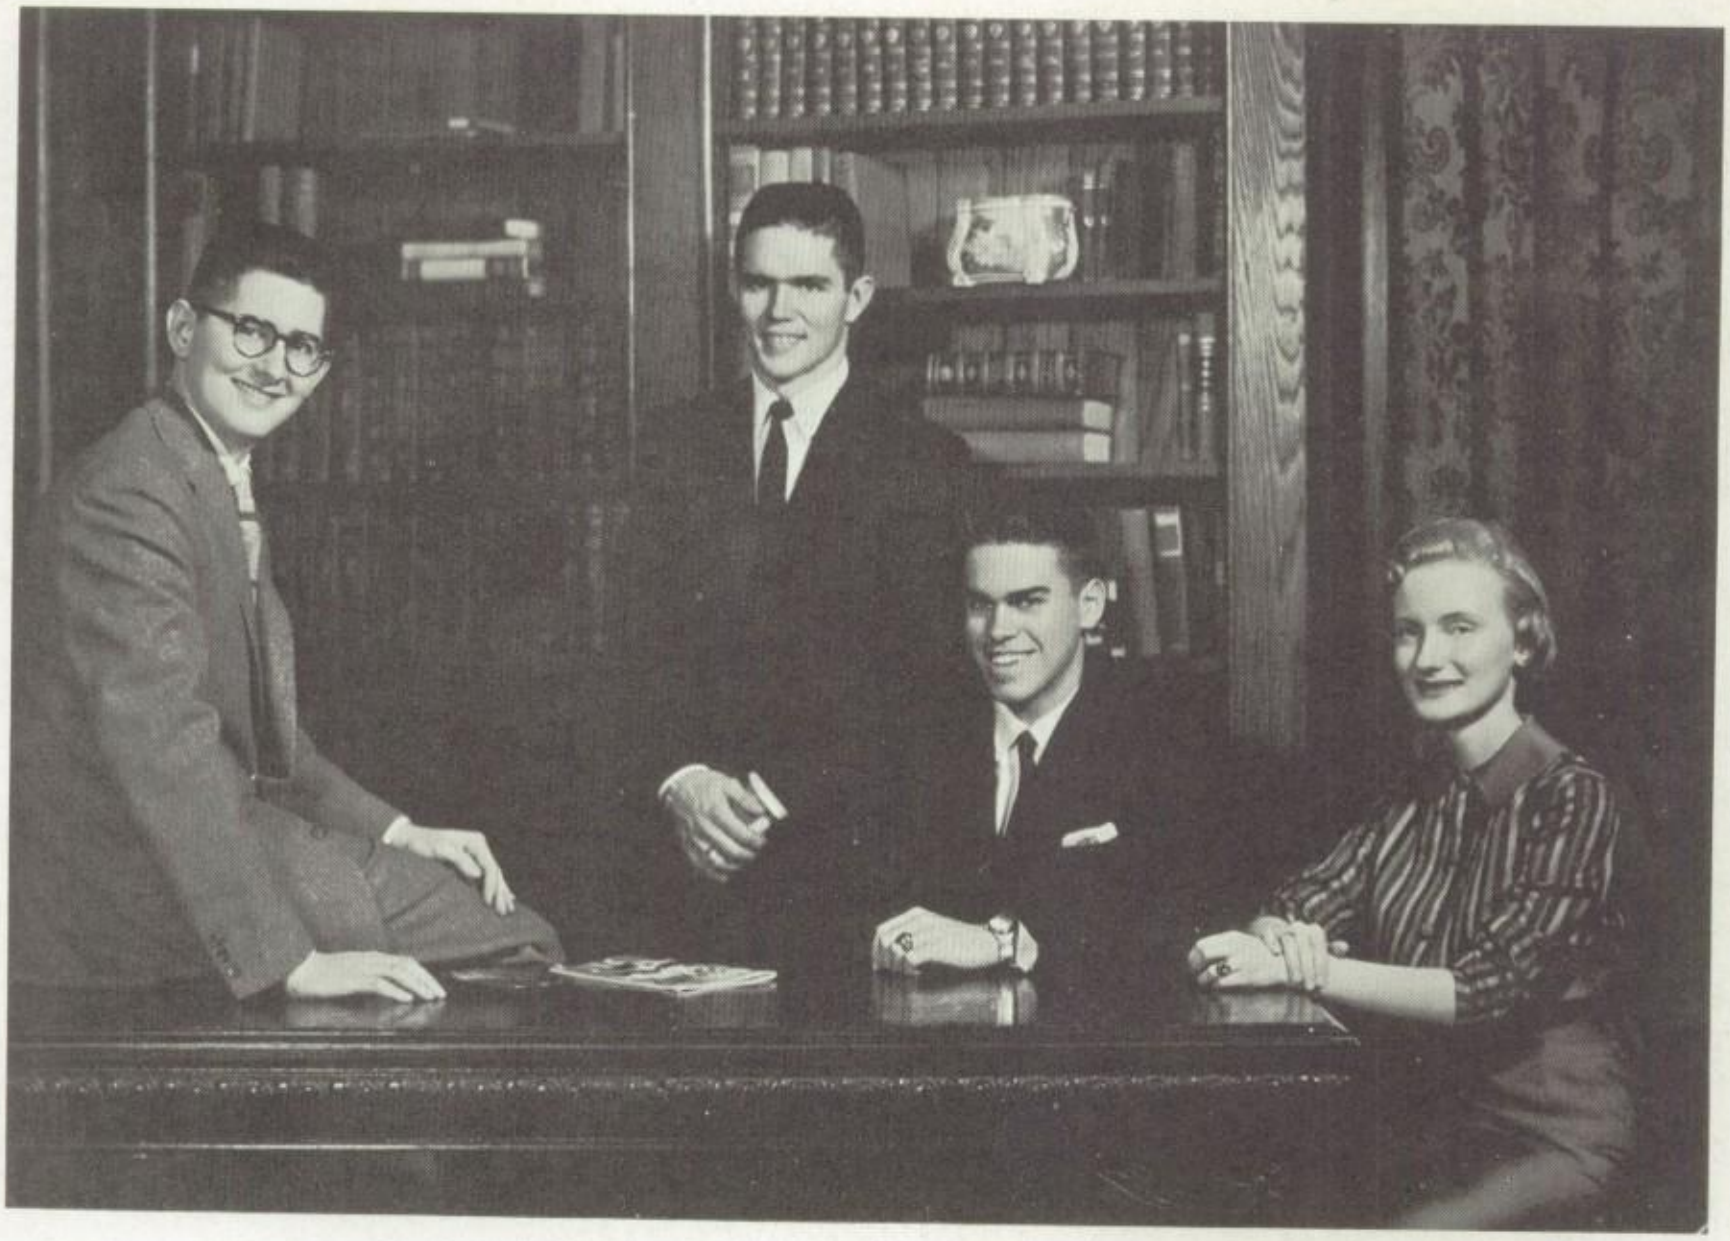
Classes



There are many erperiences in life which give us maturity. Unfortunately, these experiences are often unrecognized, endured rather than valued. So it is with high school: we rarely see the true worth of high school life until it is a memory. We seldom realize this maturity gained in high school, for it varies greatly and although gradual and sure, its approach is almost always resisted.

As we leave, it is our greatest desire to recognize this maturity and use it to live a more valuable life.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To be elected a member of the National Honor Society is considered the highest honor a student can attain during his years at Northside. The requirements are character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Inductions are held twice yearly. A student must be in the second semester of his junior year or in his senior year to be eligible. The faculty chooses the new members.

The two major services that this society performs each year are the presentation of College Night and Welcoming Day for the sub-freshmen.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is a representative body which helps to organize and govern the campus life at Northside. The faculty often calls upon the Student Council to give advice in student-teacher relations. The Student Council publishes the student directory and sponsors assembly programs. They also fill Thanksgiving baskets and deliver them to the needy.

The Viking

Near the end of May the long awaited Viking is at last put into the hands of those who wish a record of the people and events which have made the past year at Northside one to remember.

This year's staff has used its untiring efforts in putting together an outstanding yearbook with many new features. The staff is made up of seniors who have had a recommendation from their English teachers.

Producing the book.

Before the Viking goes to press, Room 117 dur-ng sixth period seems a mass of confusion. Each member of the staff, with his assigned pages cov-ered with picture proportions, none of which is correct, is racing madly to beat the deadline. Dick Werner, a photographer from last year's staff, with his trusty camera, cannot be found idling his time. He is always at work either posing people or developing pictures. Nancy and Tommy, between practical jokes, are seen trying to put fifty pictures on one page, while Jan frantically searches for the lost contracts for expensive and precious ads. Amid all the confusion, rushing around, and practical joking, Miss Mulkey breathes a loud sigh of relief as the copy and pictures are finally put into the hands of the printer. Now the staff anxiously awaits the return of the work and the circulation of the book, in hopes that the latest edition of the Viking meets the approval of all its readers.

Racing the deadline.

This year's staff has put forth their entire effort to make the Tiger Tales interesting to everyone and compare favorably with other school newspapers.

ACES

The Ace Club is one of the top four social clubs at Northside. Alpha Chi Epsilon Club held its first night meeting on September 24, 1956, when they elected the chapter chairman and sponsor and organized the needed committees for the year.

Along with the Kats they sponsored the Twerp Dance which has become as much a tradition at Northside as Sadie Hawkins Day in Dogpatch! The Aces and Kats also co-sponsored the victory dance after the Grady game. An informal dance after the Murphy game was sponsored completely by the Aces.

As one member put it, "We may not have the most points, but we do have the most fun. I wouldn't be in any other club."

At Christmas time the Aces faithfully supported the drive for clothes and toys for the needy.

The Kats, one of our four outstanding social clubs, have greatly added to the spirit of Northside this year. The purpose of the Kappa Alpha Tau Club is to learn to work together and to know better the members of the student body.

Their biggest project this year is to beat the Aces, Rebs, and Tops in club competition. The night meetings, something new this year at Northside, promoted enthusiasm and support among the Kat Club members. At the first meeting, Sept. 26, the Kats elected their faculty advisor and chapter chairmen and organized the needed committees.

The Kats sponsored the informal dance after the O'Keefe game and were co-sponsors with the Ace Club for the victory dance following the Grady game. The Twerp Dance, given in the early spring, was also co-sponsored by the Kat Club.

The Annual Snow Ball, which the Tops and Rebs co-sponsored, was the best attended dance of 1956 and a big success. Music for this dance was provided by Paul Cooper. MIXED CHORUS

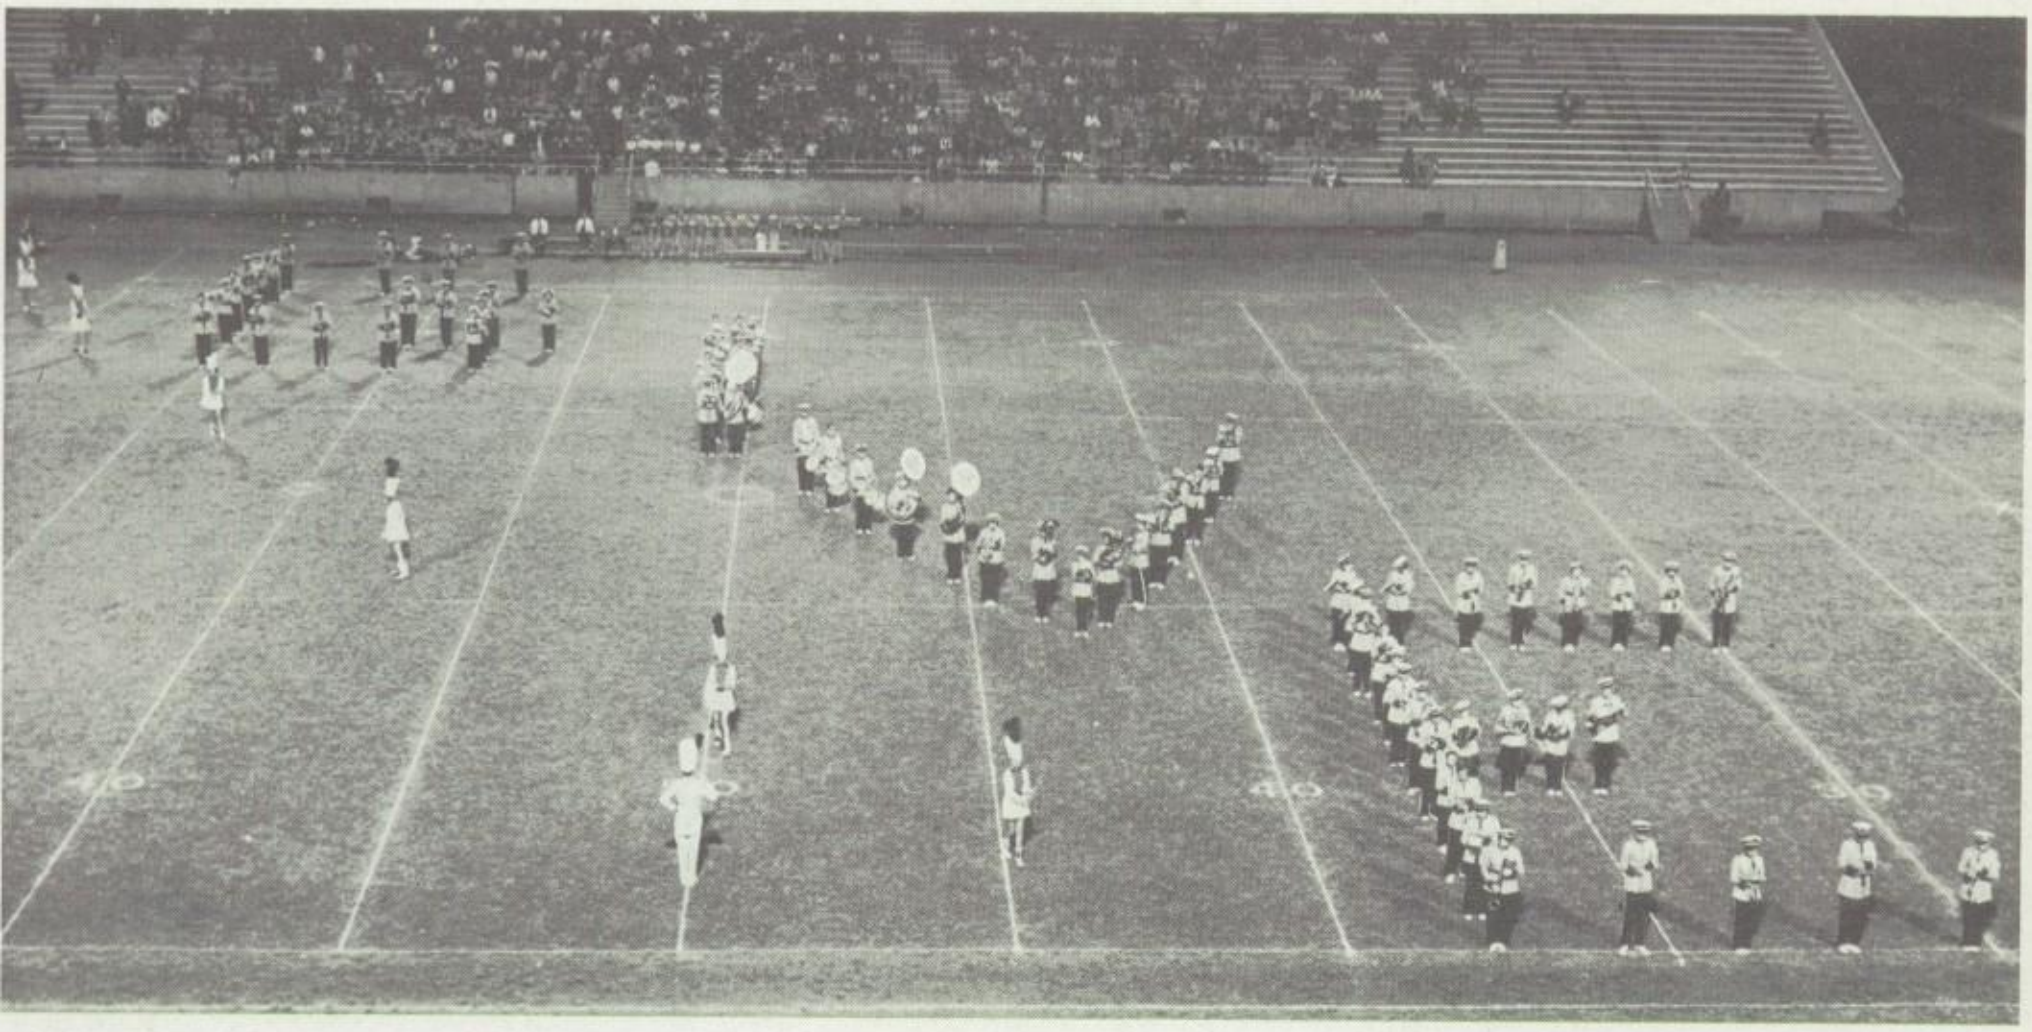
CHORAL GROUPS

The two choral groups at Northside, the Mixed Chorus and the Girls' Chorus, did an excellent job this year. They sang at several school functions. The Mixed Chorus earned a Superior rating at the Regional Music Festival in March, and the Girls' Chorus earned an Excellent rating. Northside is especially proud of the music department.

MIXED CHORUS OFFICERS

GIRLS' CHORUS



BAND

The Northside Band, under the able direction of Mr. Hughes, did an excellent job in their work this year. Due to constant practice, often before school early in the morning, their improvement was steady. Their colorful half time shows added as much to the football games as their untiring efforts added to the pep rallies and made school spirit popular. Rated Superior at the Regional Music Festival, the band outdid all its city competitors. It placed twelve members in All-State bands and won many other honors during the year.

MAJORETTES

Northside's Majorette Corps performs with the band at all football games and other special events. They were a fine inspiration with their diligent work and careful performances.

In the Regional Music Festival Judy Fox earned a Superior rating; and Jean Bennett, Lynn Bearden, Joan Avent, Sandra Byrd, and Marsha Clifton earned an excellent rating.

Saber Presentation

Following the example of last year's cadets, the Northside ROTC Battalion received a superior rating on its Georgia Military District Inspection. Another superior rating was gained in the Annual Technical Inspection which showed the unit tops in the supply and equipment section.

Federal Inspection went smoothly with good cooperation from the cadets, and a superior rating is expected. Another successful event was Sponsor Day, which brought a picnic for the battalion officers.

All in all the 1957 ROTC unit has been one of the best in Northside's history.

NORTH FULTON

Northside finally beat North Fulton by more than one point. When they did, they went all the way, 27-7. Stann Gann gained 154 yards, 77 yards more than the whole Bulldog team. He passed to Gordon Beckham and John Ferguson for two of the touchdowns. Mike Thomas and Bill Grigsby each scored one to insure the victory.

GRADY

Northside completed its first undefeated, untied regular season with a 14-6 victory over Grady. John Ferguson, playing fullback since Robert Sharp's injury in the North Fulton game, scored both touchdowns. Ed Nutting, Max Staples, and John Baker sparkled on defense.

BROWN

The Tigers won their third consecutive City Championship on the power of three touchdowns by Gordon Beckham and one by Jim Libby. Two of Beckham's scores and Libby's one were on Stan Gann's accurate passes. On defense the sparklers were John Baker, Sonny Todd, Ed Nutting, and Mike Thomas.

CEDARTOWN

The Tigers reached their peak in their brilliant 20-0 victory over Cedartown for the North Georgia Championship. Gordon Beckham and Stan Gann, who scored respectively, one and two touchdowns, were the shining lights on offense. The whole defensive line played so well that the swift Cedartown offense never got started.

RICHMOND ACADEMY

The Tigers put up a terrific fight in their 13-7 loss to Richmond Academy at Augusta. Until the fourth quarter Northside was unable to move the ball. In the fourth quarter Stan Gann passed to Gordon Beckham, Jim Boardman, Jim Libby, John Ferguson, and then to Bill Grigsby for the Tigers' only touchdown. As the final seconds ticked away they had marched to the Richmond Academy 35. It was this "never say die spirit" and the team's fine character that made the 1956 Tigers a truly great team.

The following were the most outstanding players: End—Bill Werner; Tackles—Rusty Jones, Ben Statham, and Butch Suson; Guards—Mike Broadbear, and Billy Roberts; Backs—Buddy Milton and Bobby Kirkland.

EIGHTH GRADE

When the Baby Tiger schedule was complete, the scorebook showed six wins and one defeat. They scored 175 points to their opponents 34. The Baby Tigers had an exceptionally well balanced backfield. ON TO VICTORY

The Northside cheerleaders have worked long and hard this year. As well as making posters and selling pennants, they practice every day after school to prepare for the next game. Without them the traditional Northside spirit would not be what it is.

TRACK

The 1957 edition of the track team is expected to equal or surpass the state championship team of last year. Returning lettermen such as Charlie Howard, Dick Hicks, Jimmy Murray, and Warren Overstreet will make it strong in running events; while Ed Nutting, state champion shot putter, and Jim Boardman will strengthen our field events. Coach Anderson is also expecting great things from former B-teamers. All in all, the future looks very bright for the Northside tracksters.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Cross Country team, probably the least recognized organization at Northside, has just completed the most successful season in recent years. The fifteen members of the team, all that remained from the original thirty, faithfully ran, once a week, the 2½ mile course around the Water Works reservoir. They finished the season with a 5-1 record and placed second in the Northern Division Championship. Outstanding runners were Wyche Fowler, Warren Overstreet, Jimmy Murray, Dick Hicks, and Bill Prewitt. We congratulate this team and Carter Redd, student coach, for its exceptionally fine season.

BASEBALL

Our baseball team, which placed second in the State tournament last year, is hoping to have another successful season. This recent success is probably attributed to the unity and companionship the players have held during the past few years. All the boys have been playing either with or against each other ever since the formation of the Little League in Buckhead. We wish the team and Coach Creel the best of luck during this 1957 season.

GIRLS TENNIS

The girls tennis team was undefeated in city league competition last year. In the city tournament they won first and second places in singles and first place in doubles. In the state tournament the girls took first place in doubles and were runners-up in singles. Kathy Barnett, Mary Anne Connerat, and Sandra Atkinson, members of the team, make 1957 look like another championship year.

BOYS TENNIS

Last year the boys tennis team, also undefeated in city league competition, won the city championship for the second straight year. In this championship the team won first and second places in doubles and second place in the singles. They went to the state finals where they were runners-up in doubles, and where Buzzy Cowart took first place in singles. Buzzy Cowart and Grant Carter, two members of the team, make prospects for 1957 excellent.

Dear Judy

I have enjoyed no end being in homeroom with you and enjoying your company your sparkling persanality has been a credit to my moral. Your beauty has made me feel better many a morning and your conversation has pulled up my fellings. You are definately a credit to your school, your homeroom and your freinds. You are one of the cutest and by far the sweetest girl in the gyps during homeroom period. I hope you have many more "good" partys like the one you had a couple of Tuesdays ago. I wish you all the luck in the world and

Well- here's where you find all those insults I promised only I'll try not to say anything!!

Will you ever forget all the crazy stupid things we've done this year such as- making dolls (?) clothes (?) (Well girls aren't we a little old????) for that GREAT .World History Bulletin board- Don't you think we should be choreographers- after all we dance so well !!!!! Remember the morning we woke Dudley up in the middle of his 9:00 a.m. cigarette to get him to take us to Buckhead- Weren't we sneaky??!! I'm running out of paper so I'll shut up- Be good !!

See you in "Tiger Tales" next year! Good Luck with Kid, Friend, & all the other Kids!

Judy —

You know the fun we've had this year through thick & thin (teachers, etc.) but I'd like to remind you of a few of the more humorous (?) times. To begin with the most recent, have you felt the earth jolt while standing perpendicular to the earth at 5:30 A.M. approximitely? Your parties are so much fun even though I do arrive a little (2 hours) late. Better late than never? Better Never! Have you remembrance of "Cagey Carswell" and all her morning supply of library notices and demerits for "misplaced" people? & will you ev-er-ev-er learn to walk on the right side of the hall — you wouldn't get walked upon half as much! Then to the humble abode of "Wet Waters" and the black crepe paper we didn't buy enough of and the dolls we couldn't attach to the wall — Wonder Why? All those volumes & volumes of questions asked answers (& use it in the loosest sense of the word) & the tests you had to make up. Poor Sick (?) Thing! It looks very healthy! May we never forget my favorite teacher "Fearing Robertson" & her humorous antics — telling you that you had driven before & I was too short! Of all things! Judy - I've kidded you a lot this year (chipmunk, triangle, no reasoning power, chemistry, etc.) and I must say you've taken it wonderfully. You're a darling girl, not a gossip (thank heavens!), and a friend I'm very proud to have!

Love & Luck Always,

Dear Judy
Good luck
